

A third-generation Californian, March Fong Eu broke barriers to Asians and women in elective office. In 1966 Eu won her bid for the State Assembly, becoming the first Asian American to hold the position.

Eu served four terms in the Assembly, before Californians elected her Secretary of State in 1974. She was the first woman in that position, and the first Asian American voted into a California constitutional office. In 1994 she became the U.S. Ambassador to the Federated States of Micronesia. Throughout her public service, March Fong Eu has opened the doors of opportunity for others.

POLITICAL TRAILBLAZER

MARCH FONG EU